The Palace, Mysore.

Dear Sir,

Kalighat Mysore Memorial.

You will remember that when I was in Mysore in April last I spoke to His Highness, and to you, about the salaries of the staff attached to the Memorial. I have put off tackling this question as long as possible by giving occasional presents myself, but the matter has now come before me in an acute form.

There is no doubt the cost of living in Calcutta has within the last three years increased immensely, unskilled labour commands a price which it has never commanded before and it has been with difficulty that I have succeeded in keeping the Temple staff together.

The Pujari I could easily replace on his pay, but I fancy as the oldest servant at the Temple he would expect an increment if the others get it, but to fill the place of the Head Gardener Chakradhar would be very difficult, he is really the man who runs the place, (The Local Agent is there only for a couple of hours daily) he has been there from the day I took charge, he is an intelligent good gardener, takes a personal interest in the place, can and does always command labour when wanted, is responsible for the upkeep of the grounds, and every visitor to the Temple has remarked how well they are kept. I should be greatly handicapped without him.

He is the cause of my present trouble. It seems that the Tollygunge Golf Club are extending their gardens and intend engaging a head gardener with three other men for the extension. The man in charge of the Club grounds has approached Chakradhar with an offer of Rs.20/- rising to Rs.25/- a month and he has to engage three other men at the salaries I am now paying, with increments of eight annas for 5 years. If Chakradhr leaves, the two other men who are related to him in some way go also, and I shall be left without any one at the Temple. I have told Chakradhar that I will not recommend his receiving the pay offered by the Club but that I shall put the case up for His Highness' consideration and let him know the decision. As the labour market stands Chakradhar at his present pay, is a cheap man.

The amount sanctioned by the Huzroi Department for the staff at the Temple is already fully appropriated and if any advance is given I shall have to take it out of some other heading or a further grant must be sanctioned under establishment. The pay of the men is as follows:- Pujari - Rs.15/-, Chakradhar Rs.15/.

One man 11/- and one man 10/-.

If I may venture to offer a suggestion for the consideration of His Highness, I would give Chakradhar Rs.16/- a month with yearly increments of one rupee for four years, the other men Rs.12/- and 11/- each with increments of eight annas per month for four years. The Pujari I leave for His Highness to decide.

I must regret having to trouble His Highness in this matter but I have no alternative. I shall be glad to hear from you as early as possible.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/ F.A. Larmour.
